Hello Wright Prep Families!

As we prepare to kick off the 2022-23 school year, we need your help to ensure that your child arrives to school in full uniform daily. In order maintain our professional learning environment and for continuous learning to take place without uniform violations.

All students are expected to be in full uniform by the first day of school, Monday, August 15th.

Please review the uniform/dress code expectations described in this letter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.
